ROYAL ASCOT DRESS CODE 2023

ALL ENCLOSURES

Visitors are welcome to wear the formal National Dress of their country or Service Dress. If your National Dress does not include a hat or headpiece then you do not need to wear one. Religious headdress is permitted in place of a hat or headpiece. Serving military personnel are welcome to wear Service Dress or equivalent.

We appreciate that certain medical conditions may prevent guests from adhering to our dress code. We would like all guests to feel as comfortable as possible during their visit, so please contact our access officer (access.officer@ascot.com) detailing your concerns and we will try to accommodate wherever possible.

PLEASE NOTE:

In addition to the specific guidance of the dress code, fancy dress, novelty and branded or promotional clothing is not permitted. We do not allow any items relating to stag and hen parties as this would be considered novelty clothing.
